

GOALS GALORE AS WEST KENT TEAMS GET OFF TO WINNING WAYS IN 2023

Tonbridge Angels, Sevenoaks Town, Corinthian and Rusthall were all in action on Bank Holiday Monday hoping to get their New Year off with a bang, and we weren't disappointed. Rusthall were away at SCEFL Premier Division opponents Bearsted, and after their 2-0 Boxing Day win over local rivals Tunbridge Wells, they stretched their legs once again scoring five goals for three against the 10-man Maidstone outfit. Three goals from Louie Clarke (6', 40' pen, 53') got them on their way as Dan Blunn (64'), and Reuel Powell-Downey (81' pen) helped steer them to another three points in their chase of Erith & Belvedere at the top of the league. Sevenoaks Town were back at home in the Pitching-In Isthmian League South East Division where they faced a high-flying Beckenham Town, and whatever they did or didn't do on New Year's Eve obviously worked with goals from Fumnaya Shomotun (55'), Solomon Baugh (67', 79'), and Man of the Match Freddie Parker (72') securing a magnificent four-nil win. Corinthian also returned home in the Isthmian League for their first game of 2023 hosting relegation rivals Sittingbourne. In a must win match for the Hoops, Oscar Housego (45' pen) Josh Leach (47') and Jack Godfrey (86') helped them on their way to a 3-0 win. Tonbridge Angels were not so lucky as they travelled to Welling United in the Vanarama National League South, losing the tie 2-1. Lewis Gard (23') on the scoresheet for Tonbridge. This was the second time the two sides had met over the holiday period with Welling winning at Tonbridge 1-0 the week before.

• Kent County and Sevenoaks District football resumes on Saturday 7th January to make up the first full fixture list of 2023.
