

COLD WEATHER PLAYS HAVOC WITH FIXTURES ACROSS ALL SPORTS

The recent cold weather has continued to wreck clubs plans to host many fixtures across West Kent with football, rugby and hockey suffering multiple last-minute postponements across the weekend.

First to call off their match were Sevenoaks Rugby Club, who stated that their pitch at Knole Paddock in central Sevenoaks had failed a pitch inspection, and with the temperatures not rising enough, they had to unfortunately postpone their match at home to Barnes RFC.

Tonbridge Juddians however made the long trip to the Channel Islands where Guernsey RFC waited in more tropical climes for their National 2 East fixture. TJ's were unlucky to come away with only their sixth loss of the season, going down 25-14.

In the Vanarama National South Tonbridge Angels' match away at Hampton & Richmond Borough was cancelled due to the weather, however Corinthian and Sevenoaks Town managed to get their games underway, both away. Corinthian stunned VCD Athletic on Friday evening, leaving the south-east London club with all three points in a 4-1 win. Sevenoaks travelled to Lancing on the south coast but were unable to put away their chances, finally losing the tie 3-1.

Rusthall FC made the trip to Fisher FC on the banks of the river Thames where they lost 3-0, a temporary dent to their SCEFL Premier Division title hopes.

Tunbridge Wells, Snodland and Larkfield & New Hythe's matches all succumbed to the freezing conditions.

In hockey the women's game suffered most with eight matches featuring local sides cancelled, and with the top flight divisions still on their winter break, there was little success for Sevenoaks HC to report on. However Tunbridge Wells successfully navigated the majority of their fixtures, the highlight being a 3-0 win over Oaks in the Men's South East Premier Division.

Many of the local sports pitches have been deemed unplayable due to the recent cold weather, meaning that those sites used for multiple matches have had to postpone until a future date.
