

LOCAL HOCKEY CLUBS PUSH FOR LEAGUE TITLES AS SEASON EDGES ON

Local hockey clubs are really showing their mettle at the season heads into the final few weeks with a number of clubs pushing for their respective titles. All three of HC Knole Park's teams lead the way in their respective divisions with their women's 1s topping the South East Women's Division 1 Invicta having dropped just three points in their search of back-to-back promotions. Knole Park's women's 2s also head the pack of Division 5 Invicta with a clean sweep so far this season. Their men's team sit atop the Men's Division 3 Invicta after 15 games played with just seven matches left in the season.

Meanwhile, Sevenoaks HC women's 1s are enjoying a great season, as England Hockey's premier competition resumed in February. After 10 games played, they are joint top of the Division 1 South alongside Isca & University of Essex. With eight games to go, they could find themselves in a great position to reach the pinnacle of hockey by qualifying for the Premier Division, the toughest competition in England. Sevenoaks women's 2s also find themselves in the hunt for promotion having played 13 of their 22 games with 32 points, just six points off the top but with a game in hand over Old Georgians.

Elsewhere, K Sports men's 1s have fought hard this term and they are rewarded for the effort after winning 12 of their 14 games so far and sit above the rest in the Division 2 Invicta. Their 2s are also looking to push for promotion from Division 6 Invicta. Tunbridge Wells are striving for a fantastic season all round with their women's 1s, 2s, 3s and 4s all at the top of their game in their respective leagues. Whilst their men's 1s, 2s and 3s have great opportunities in the latter part of the season to reach promotion places. Check out all the latest results and league tables on pages 4 and 5.
