

Cricketers strike a colourful picture on The Vine as the Savills Smashers (97/6) lost to the Sevenoaks Sixers (133/4) on Friday evening.

THE SMASH RETURNS WITH IT'S COLOURFUL 100 BALL EXCITEMENT!

The Smash has made it's welcome return to cricket clubs throughout West Kent this summer and it promises to be an even bigger hit than last summer.

Now with 42 teams split across nine divisions, all clubs taking part will be looking forward to Sunday 23rd July and the Smash Finals Day, which will be held at the iconic Vine Cricket Ground in Sevenoaks once again.

There will be three finals held on the day, starting with the Bowl, then the Plate and finishing with the Cup, which Holmesdale Stallions have held since the competition's inception in 2021.

Club's have until June 21st to complete all their group games, and plenty have already made waves with Sevenoaks Vine Jazzers, Bromley, Holmesdale Stallions, Cowdrey Courage, Tunbridge Wells Royals, Gravesend Casuals, Plaxtol Pirates, Sevenoaks Sixers, Sevenoaks Vine Old Oaks, St Michaels Scorchers, Cudham Crushers, Chislehurst & West Kent and Bromley Town all recording wins.

With fixtures planned for midweek evenings, there are plenty of opportunities for spectators to still get involved, please check the forthcoming fixture list on page four of this week's statistics report for more information.

- Due to lack of player availability, Gore Court Gophers withdrew from the competition in mid-May. This means all teams in Tier 2 Group 1 received three points, with no further impact on the tournament structure.
