SEVENOAKS TOWN ENJOY A TRIPLE WINNING WEEKEND AS SEASON GROWS

Sevenoaks Town Football Club are enjoying a purple patch across all three of its senior teams.

Sevenoaks' men's side are now fourth in the Isthmian League South East Division after a 5-1 win away at Littlehampton Town on Saturday afternoon. Goals from Fumnaya Shomotun, Domonic Morgan Griffiths, Daniel Bennett and Rowan Liburd (2) secured all three points against one of their furthest rivals.

With seven more games to play before the end of the year, Sevenoaks will be hoping to keep their run of results going under the new stewardship of Mark Dacey.

On Sunday, Sevenoaks' women took to the pitch at Greatness Park with matches against London Road and Old Pepys in the South East Counties Womens Football League (SECWFL).

Sevenoaks' 1st XI took on London Road in the Premier Division and a single goal from Camilla Eerdmans was enough to take all three points. The win puts Sevenoaks just behind Tunbridge Wells Foresters in third place after 10 matches played.

The Development squad made light work of visiting Old Pepys in the Kent Division 2 West. Goals from Ellie Hyner (2), Poppy Crosthwaite (3) and Millie Walker secured an emphatic 6-0 victory to give them their third league win of the year. Meanwhile, Tonbridge Angels are getting themselves back on track after a convincing string of results which has propelled them up to eighth place in the Vanarama National League South.

Tonbridge's most recent 4-1 win over Havant & Waterlooville came at home with goals from Lewis Gard, Jordan Greenidge and Tariq Hinds (2).

A busy December will see the Angels travel to Torquay United this Saturday before hosting Dartford. They then travel back to the South West to Taunton Town before hosting Maidstone United on Boxing Day.

And the Angels womens side are also hitting the headlines in November with three wins a draw during the month. Their latest result in the SECWFL Kent Division 1 West, a 2-2 draw with top of the league Cray Wanderers, puts them within striking distance of a title challenge should they continue their streak.
