HAWKENBURY HEAD INTO LAST SIX GAMES UNBEATEN IN THE LEAGUE

Hawkenbury FC added their tenth unbeaten league match with a thumping 14 nil win over Ide Hill 3rds in the Sevenoaks & District Football League Premier division. Their latest win gave them a healthy 10-point lead over second placed St Lawrence and Southborough, albeit with the latter having three games in hand. Goals from Ross Chambers (2), Ryan Sylvester (2), Charlie Simpson (2), George Gill (4), Scott Turner, Daniel Vitler, Ben Ailes and Dan Hunt secured the latest and biggest win for the club this season.

With 43 goals scored and just 11 let in at the back, Hawkenbury are on track for a fantastic season with just six league games left, two being against the aforementioned second placed teams. A great achievement indeed, but one that was slightly marred by the fact that Ide Hill fielded their 4th Development team from Division Two after the 3rd's manager was sacked during the week, and players refusing to play. Something that has no place in community sport. Hawkenbury FC commented on social media after the match and said: "With Ide Hill 3rds refusing to play after the manager was sacked, their development squad had to take their place. We thank Ide Hill for fulfilling the fixture and wish the development side who never gave up all the best for the rest of the season." Here at West Kent Sport & Wellbeing we join Hawkenbury in commending the players of the Ide Hill development side who never gave up in extremely difficult circumstances. This is what sport is all about, coming together when it matters most!
