

IN ASSOCIATION WITH WEST KENT SPORT AND WELLBEING MAGAZINE

Corinthian FC and Jack Billings (pictured) fought hard for 90 minutes giving a solid performance, but it was Erith Town who progressed to the Isthmian League on penalties.

JOY FOR LARKFIELD & NEW HYTHE, AND HEARTBREAK FOR CORINTHIAN!

Both Larkfield & New Hythe FC and Corinthian FC enjoyed success midweek when they played themselves into the South East Counties Football League (SCEFL) First Division and Premier Division playoff finals respectively.

Larkfield & New Hythe overcame a dogged Lewisham Borough at home, finally beating them 13-12 on penalties to make the final against Staplehurst Monarchs, after drawing 0-0.

Meanwhile Corinthian travelled to Faversham for their spot in the final, and despite goals from Michael Hagan and Dean Nayler, the tie was also taken to penalties. Corinthian survived though and went on to win 1-4 on penalties. And so on to the playoff finals, first up were Larkfield & New Hythe who entertained Staplehurst Monarchs at the Eden Estates Stadium on Saturday afternoon in front of a bumper crowd. A solitary own goal was enough to lift Larkfield & New Hythe into the SCEFL Premier Division, where they will play local rivals Snodland Town once again next season.

Corinthian travelled to Erith Town on Bank Holiday Monday, and despite holding onto a 1-0 lead courtesy of Michael Hagan, the home side battled well to get the equaliser in the 86th minute. This was the second time this had happened this season, after Corinthian played Erith Town in the Challenge Cup Final, with a similar outcome.

It was straight to penalties and once again Corinthian were left heartbroken as Erith Town eased to a 4-2 win.

With Larkfield & New Hythe's promotion, Greenways being relegated and K Sports after switching their team to Sheppey Sports, there are no longer any West Kent sides in the First Division.

However in the Premier Division, we can look forward to an explosion of SCEFL Premier Division football next season with Corinthian, Larkfield & New Hythe, Rusthall, Snodland Town, and Tunbridge Wells all competing for a place in the Isthmian League - and none of them will have to travel to Deal either, since they were promoted out of the division as champions.
