ANGELS MANAGER JAY SAUNDERS TO DEPART

Tonbridge Angels boss Jay Saunders has helped establish the club as a force in the National League South and they currently sit 10th in the table. But after three seasons at the helm, he is ready for a fresh challenge within the game.

Saunders told the club's website that this is not a decision taken lightly and he thinks the club will continue to progress once a new manager is appointed.

"I would like to take this opportunity to thank Tonbridge Angels for the chance I was given to lead this great club," he said. "I've enjoyed every minute of my time here and would like to think I leave the club in a good place to keep progressing.

"Everyone at Tonbridge Angels has made me and my family feel so at home and I couldn't speak highly enough of the place. I really believe the club will keep growing. With plans to take the club forward, I believe whoever is lucky enough to take over from me has a great opportunity."

The club's chair, Sophie Purves said: "On behalf of the Board and everyone at the club I'd like to thank Jay for all his fantastic efforts since he joined Tonbridge Angels in 2022. We will all miss Jay greatly and we wish him the very best for his next chapter in football. Jay and his family will always be welcome here at Tonbridge Angels."

ARE JUDDIANS ON THE BRINK OF RETURNING TO NATIONAL 1?

Tonbridge Juddians will have to see out their season after they suprisingly lost away at Old Albanians 29-28 at the weekend, following another loss at home to Barnes the week before.

Before those two games, Tonbridge were cruising back to National League 1 having only lost one match all season, but they will now be looking over their shoulders to see if Barnes and Dorking will close ranks with just four games to go. Tonbridge do have a game in hand over their opponents however that is a tricky fixture away at Guernsey. Tonbridge play Dorking on the last day of the season. Meanwhile, Sevenoaks RFC are keeping themselves afloat at the bottom of the National 2 East after a superb 23-27 win on the road at relegation threatened Colchester.
